

Report on Notable Energy Developments for the December 2007 SLT meeting
Denmark
4-5 December 2007

New Danish Ministry for Climate and Energy

Following general elections to the Danish parliament (Folketing) the Danish Prime Minister Anders Fogh Rasmussen continues as leader of a liberal-conservative government. In the new government, responsibility for the energy sector is included in newly created ministry – Ministry for Climate and Energy.

New Minister for Climate and Energy is Connie Hedegaard, Conservative and MP. Connie Hedegaard has served as Minister for the Environment since August 2004.