

World Energy Outlook 2008: The Road to Copenhagen

Informal workshop co-hosted by the International Energy Agency and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark
Copenhagen, 17 April 2008

AGENDA

Venue: Eigtveds Pakhus, Asiatisk Plads 2, G., 1448 København K, Denmark

10.00 – 10.15 Welcome – Connie Hedegaard, Danish Minister of Climate and Energy

10.15 – 10.45 Introduction - Fatih Birol, IEA – WEO 2008

10.45 – 12.30 Session I

Future Architecture: Which Scenarios to Inform Decision-Making Through 2009?

Chair: Bert Metz, IPCC

Animateurs:

Jun Arima, Japan

Lobo Balia, Indonesia

Carmen Difulio, United States

Leif K Ervik, Norway

Ritu Mathur, India

Piotr Tulej, European Commission

Henning Wuester, UNFCCC

Songli Zhu, China

12.30 – 14.00 Lunch break

14.00 – 15.15 Session II – Implications for Finance

Chair: Patrick Oliva, Michelin

Animateurs:

Richard Folland, JP Morgan

Jochen Hierl, European Investment Bank

Takashi Hongo, Japan Bank for International Cooperation

Anil Terway, Asian Development Bank

Zhihong Zhang, Global Environment Facility

15.15 – 15.45 Break

15.45 – 17.30 Session III – Implications for Industry and the Energy Sector

Chair: Joan McNaughton, Alstom

Animateurs:

Peter Brun, Vestas

François Dassa, EDF

Takayuki Kusajima, Toyota

Michael Lewis, E.ON

Arne Mogren, Vattenfall

Chris Mottershead, BP

Jean-Pol Poncelet, Areva

17.30 – 18.00 Conclusion – Maciej Sadowski, Chief Adviser on Climate Change to the Minister of Environment, Poland and Fatih Birol, IEA