

TRACKING
THE FIRST 20 CCS
DEMONSTRATIONS

INTERNATIONAL ENERGY AGENCY

Working Party on Fossil Fuels

Global Peer Review

27 May 2009 - BERGEN

Side-event of the
HIGH-LEVEL CONFERENCE ON
CLIMATE CHANGE AND TECHNOLOGY
Fighting Climate Change with CCS

PROGRAMME

Wednesday 27 May 2009

Venue: Radisson SAS Hotel Norge
Nedre Ole Bulls Plass 4, Bergen

Time	Topics
08.30	Registration
	Welcome and High-Level Introductions
09.00	Welcome Jostein Dahl Karlsen Chair, International Energy Agency Working Party on Fossil Fuels Introductions <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Terje Riis-Johansen, Minister of Petroleum and Energy, Norway• IEA/G8 Country High-Level Representative (tbc)
	G8 Supported Launch of 20 CCS Demonstration Projects by 2010 – Assessing Progress
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Tracking Progress in Worldwide CCS Demonstrations – Preliminary Criteria and Assessment Nick Otter, Interim CEO, Global Carbon Capture and Storage Institute, Australia• What does it take to Demonstrate CCS at Large Scale – the Case of Mongstad Bjørn Erik Haugan, Managing Director, Gassnova Plenary Discussion: Assessing Progress of CCS Demonstrations – Modes and Overall Stocktaking Moderator: Nick Otter, Interim CEO, GCCSI
	Demonstration Activities Around the World
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Snapshot of CCS Demonstrations Globally and in the EU Nils Røkke, Climate Director, SINTEF• CCS Pilot Activities in the US – Dynamics and Emerging Project Portfolio Michael Moore, Managing Partner, Bluesource Inc.• CCS Demonstrations in the Developing World – the Case of China Su Wenbin, President, Greengen, (tbc) Plenary Discussion: Assessing Regional CCS Pilot Activities Moderator: Carl Bauer, Director, NETL, US Department of Energy (tbc)

Reporting to the G8 on CCS Demonstrations – Preliminary Findings

- Towards Further Follow up within the G8
Speaker to be announced
 - Messages from IEA towards the G8 Summit in Italy 2009 – Preliminary Views
Tom Kerr/Keith Burnard, International Energy Agency
- Discussion and Findings

1300

Concluding Remarks and Close of Event