

Industry Expert Review Workshop

*IEA Headquarters
9 Rue de la Fédération, 75015 Paris
RER C - Champ de Mars – Tour Eiffel*

Agenda

Monday 9 February

13:30 Welcome address

Pieter Boot, Director of Sustainable Energy Policy and Technology, IEA

13:40 Indicators and G8 Process

Peter Taylor, IEA

14:00 Energy Technology Perspectives 2008 and 2010

Dolf Gielen, IEA

14:20 Scenario Assumptions and Analysis

Cecilia Tam, IEA

14:40 Industry and climate mitigation policy issues for a transition

Richard Baron, IEA

15:00 Q&A

15:30 Coffee break

16:00 Session 1: Feedback on IEA Analysis and Update on Industry Initiatives (each sector will have 20 minutes)

Aluminum Sector

Ron Knapp, International Aluminium Institute (IAI)

Cement Sector

Patrick Verhagen, Cement Sustainability Initiative (CSI)

Chemical and Petrochemical Sector

Giuseppe Astarita, International Council of Chemical Associations (ICCA)

Iron and Steel Sector

Ian Christmas, World Steel

Pulp and Paper Sector

Marco Mensink, International Council of Forest Products Association (ICFPA)

Tuesday 10 February

9:00 Session 2: Breakout Sessions

Iron and Steel
Cement
Aluminum

Chemicals and Petrochemicals
Pulp & Paper

Topics to be discussed during break out session include:

Review of updated indicators analysis
Data issues
Scenario analysis
Potential for new technologies and cost of deployment
Technology transition
Technology diffusion
Materials analysis
Opportunities for future collaboration

12:30 Lunch

14:00 Session 3: Roundtable – Conclusions and messages to G8

Chair: Dolf Gielen, IEA

- Feedback from breakout sessions
- Recommendations to G8
- Greater involvement and collaboration with developing countries
- Technology diffusion
- Deepening IEA-Industry collaboration

16:00 Closing remarks

Pieter Boot, Director of Sustainable Energy Policy and Technology, IEA