Energy Efficiency Training Week

Introduction, round table

Lighting, Appliances & Equipment

15 May 2018

#EnergyEfficientWorld

Introduction

- Welcome
- Plan for the next few days
  - Agenda & scenarios explained
  - Interactive group sessions
  - Informal
  - Follow-up – materials made available at the end of the week
- Logistics
  - Meals
  - Time keeping
- Who are we?
  - Roundtable

© OECD/IEA 2018

Lighting, Appliances and Equipment

1. Where to start: Planning energy efficiency programmes
2. Where to start: Selecting Products for MEPS and Labels
3. Where to start: Assessing current performance of appliances and equipment
4. Toolkit: IEA Indicators
5. What are the steps: Industry transformation
6. What are the steps: Stakeholder involvement and communication
7. Toolkit : Insights into energy labels

Site visit: Consumer Electronics Store

8. What are the steps: Use of ICT to make Programs smarter
9. Did it work? Tracking progress and assessing the multiple benefits
10. Toolkit: Monitoring, verification and enforcement (MV&E) of S&L
11. Key learnings: Best practice and further information
12. Review and Energy Efficiency Quiz

© OECD/IEA 2018

Energy Efficiency Training Week: LAE Team

- Mark Ellis, IEA 4E
- Melanie Slade, IEA
- Kevin Lane, IEA
- Emily McQualter, IEA

© OECD/IEA 2018

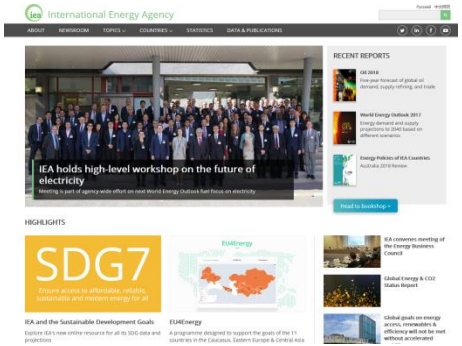

Who is in the room?

- Introduce yourself:
  - Name
  - Organisation
  - Country (including S&L programme, if any)
  - What do you want out of this week?

- The next 3 days:
  - Speak up and engage with others
  - Scenarios – working in groups
  - Ask questions

© OECD/IEA 2018

Websites, social media

http://www.iea.org/

http://www.iea.org/topics/energyefficiency/

https://www.linkedin.com/company/international-energy-agency/

Join the conversation at #EnergyEfficientWorld

© OECD/IEA 2018

www.iea.org

IEA

© OECD/IEA 2018